

Please join us for the screening of movie

Un-limited Girls

Directed by Paromita Vohra

About the Movie

'Unlimited Girls' is an exploration of engagements with feminism in contemporary urban India. A narrator called Fearless who starts accidentally in a chatroom and embarks on a journey where she encounters diverse characters - feminists who remember the songs and actions of the Indian women's movement, yuppies who discuss their modern marriage, a policeman writing films for 'women's upliftment', women shopping at a bra sale, college kids practicing a dance, teachers who feel girls must not take injustice ' or break a home; in a feminist chatroom ' all talking of their engagements with feminism and its place in their lives today.

When: 4 pm on 12 March 2018

Where: G1 Main Building, Homi Bhabha Centre for Science Education, Mankhurd - Mumbai, 400088.